

Operational Description

The transmitter of the EUT (Wireless LAN) is powered by host PC and connected with PC through USB port. The antenna is monopole and should be rotated vertically when operation. Under normal use condition, the device should be placed at least 20 cm far away from the user or nearby person.

The other instruction, please have a look at the users manual.